

FORUM

FORUM is a clean-lined, contemporary meeting table that integrates seamlessly with other furniture series. Its minimalist design makes it a versatile choice for various office interiors - from formal meeting rooms to more relaxed collaboration areas.

The FORUM conference table is available with either U-shaped or A-shaped leg frame, allowing for further customization based on aesthetic preference and space requirements.

FORUM table can be customized with integrated power and network connection modules, adding functionality to the workspace. For a more distinctive look, the table can also be configured with a contrasting intermediate panel in a different color.
